Unique and exclusive journeys in Alsace, Champagne and Paris Regions in France

Heart of Alsace Travel indulges you to a unique journey in Alsace, one of the Europe's best kept secret and gives you the opportunity to continue your trip visiting Champagne and Paris regions, two jewels of French heritage. These three regions and their capital cities are known worldwide and are among the most beautiful, the most visited and the most famous destinations in France

ALSACE

Alsace is a picturesque pastoral region located in the north east of France and one of Europe's best kept secrets. It is well-known for its colorful-timbered houses, its fairy tale medieval villages, its infinite vineyards and its castles perched at the top Vosges. Take your time and come to discover the cultural pearls of the region, its exceptional cuisine and its delicious wine.

PARIS

We have never stopped discovering Paris as the capital of France is rich in monuments, museums and discoveries. Nestled in a loop of the Seine river, in the center of the Paris Basin, the "City of Light" for Eternity as an artistic gastronomic and cultural influence without equal in the whole world. And of course, not to mention that Paris is also the world capital of fashion and luxury.

CHAMPAGNE

Champagne, lying between the Alsace and Paris regions, is one of the great historic provinces of France. It's renowned for the sparkling white wines that bears its name. Prestigious champagne houses are centered in the city of Reims. The region is mostly made up of hilly countryside, dotted with vineyards, medieval monuments, fortified hill towns and nature reserves.
